For McClellan In a Horu. There was a triangle of most enjoyable misery in one of the Washington hospitals last week, formed by three of Seymour's news of which had arrived the night be-Commissioners to rake up Democratic votes umong the sick and wounded soldiers. The story, as circulated without the credit all the ordinary Sunday coremonics. of its origin, is this:

When the visitors were seated and the papers arranged, Captain B. recognized near him an old comrade. Ah, Jack my boy, how are you? says Captain B.: of course you go for McClellan? Yes, replied Jack, in a horn. Captain subsided, agent looked blank, K. snickered, an awkward silonce ensued of several minutes duration, which was finally broke by agent mounting a box, and delivering himself as follows: 'Well, boys, I suppose I may as well tell you what I came here for make it. On driving to his house, I found sey or fortune teller. The woman, attractat first as at last. I came here to get Mc-Ciellan and Seymour votes. Now let all who want to vote these tickets come for-

The orator wiped his forehead, ran his fingers through his hair, and sat down. One lonely man went forward and hurt himself, after which came a few questions about Soymour's veta of the soldiers' voting bills and other matters connected with the dieraf to'; go out—things looked rather l stormy; when Dr. Bontecon, surgeon in charge interfered, and, addressing the men, McClellan ticket to retire to their respective wards. Immediately, every soldier left the chapel, except the one who had voted. The agent gathered up his decuments, and carried himself and thom back again to returned again to the city."

I Would rather Fight for Jeff. Davis, than Abraham Lincoln.

(For the Gazette.) Such was the remark of an individual in this city a few days since; the truth of which will by substantiated by affidavits, if questioned by the interested party. It is searcely necessary to say that this same person, was denouncing Abraham Lincolnfor making arbitary arrests as the copperthe Constitution of the United States which we guarantee he never read, and further, that he, in common with the thousand others of his class who have so much to what it is, as the Hottentot. DIARRHIEA AND DYSENTERY.

We have examined a great number of letters from ome of the most prominent citizens of Cincinnati and Covington, etc., speaking in the highest terms of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture for the cure of diarrhee and dysontery. The letters are too long to publish. Mr. Woods, of Covington, says he was pronounced incurable by the best doctors in Cincinnati, and one bottle of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture effected/a permanent cure after suffering for months with the worst form of diarrhese and dysen-

Another says he was discharged from the United States service after suffering in the hospital for eight nonths as incumble, and as a last resource tried Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture. He got well diectly and has now entered the army again in good health. One man writes he has cured seven or eight vory bad cases of diarrhora and dysentery in the barracks he was in with one bottle of this valuable medicine. In fact we could fill half our paper with similar Items from these letters. Why does, not our government secure this valuable preparation? Our army ought to be supplied with it. It is but a short time since one of our men lay in a very low condition at one of our Cincinnati Hospitals, his wife was sent for. however, gave him Strickland's Anti-Cholera/Mixture, | CLOTHETHEMSELVES and in three weeks he was able to return lighed with his wife to New Richmond, O. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

The trial of one hundred and fifty persons recently arrested in Washington and Baltimore, on the charge of farnishing goods to the rebels, has commenced before a commission, of which Genz Doubleday is President. The first case taken up was that of Johnson E Sutton, a business firm in Washington. The principal witness was Pardon Worsley, a resident of Massachusetts, when the war broke out, who testified that he was officially is employed to discover blockade-runners, and also to obtain information in the Valley from Moseby and other robels. As a moans to this end, he peddled goods among them; some May 18th, 1864; of which he purchased from the firm, who were informed of his contraband trading. but not the objects of it, nor that he was

Hood's Political Failure -It spenis that the present, or rather the late offensive campaign of Hood was actually und dertaken as a means of affording aid and comfort to the peace party of the North. Jeff, Davis, himself, confessed so in his speech delivered at Augusta on the 3d inst., just prior to Hood's, advance. He said: "We must bent Sherman; we must march into Tennessee; there we will draw from 20,000 to 30,000 to our standard, and so strengthoned, we must push the enemy back to the Ohio, and thus give the peace party of the North an accretion no puny editoral can give." The peace party must greatly grieve over the ill fortune which has befallen the army of Hood in its desperate effort to aid them. Their newspapers and speakers give abundant evidence of their disappointment:

The best statesmen, in the land have said, and the proposition has passed unchallenged, that in case of insurrection or foreign war, the institution of Slavery must be subject to such disposal as the national interests should require. In other words, that with, insurrection in a slaveholding State, the whole power over Slavery must pass to the National Covernment, In my indement. when insurrection gave the President power over Slavery, with that power camo the duty to put an end to it. Mr. Lincoln was bound to do that which was necessary for the salvation of the Republic."

KANSAS CITY, October 23. A glorious day for Kansas and Missouri. Kansas has een relieved from martial law. Agener al battle had been fought and a great victory achieved. Price's whole army is routed and retreating rapidly south, our cav-Pleasanton's force numbering 15,000 mounted men. The enemy may strike for Fort Scott, but they will be too closely followed to do much damage. The battle began early this morning.

Yesterday the volunteers were hotly enaged and Cols. Jennison and Moonlight some splendid fighting, but the situation at evening looked precarious for us.

Price had occupied the dine of the Big-Blue. E.Gen. Pleasanton closed the ball on Saturday night at Independence by capturing a large number of prisoners and 3. pieces of artillery. This morning our line was formed five miles south of Kansas City, on Westport road, and skirmishing continued for several hours when the whole orce advanced and heavy fighting ensued. The enemy rapidly fell back and formed his line a mile and a half from his first po sition. An artillery engagement ensued, was kept up for about ten miles. From this point the enemy gradually fell back. Gen. Pleasenton then came in on our left, and a grand charge followed, resulting in a total rout of the enemy. When our informant left the front the pursuit was rigorously going on by our whole cavalry, and the infantry following. Gen. Blunt, commanding the volunteer force on the left, Gen. Leitzer, the centre and right, which was composed of the Kansas State militia. The militia covered themselves with glory, not a man fultered. The 2d Colorado was in the thickest of the brilliant charges. Cols. Jennison and Hoyt, of the 15th and 16th Kansa's men also co-operated in the field and displayed the utmost valor. Gen. Leitzer, Gov. Carney, and Gen. Curtiss were constantly in the ad-

The loss is not heavy on our side. The rebel loss is not known, but from the num-ber of dead and wounded left on the field, they must have suffered considerable.

Kansas Cirv, Oct. 24.—The fight yesterday between Little Blue and Independence was a very gallant affair. We fought Price's entire army for five hours. McLane's Colorado battery eilenced the guns of a robel battery, and Col. Hoyt made a gallant sabre charge with a battallion of the 15th Kansas. Col. Fred Moonlight and Jenni-son all behaved with the utmost gallantry. The 2d Colorado lost sixty killed and wounded. Maj. Smith of that regiment, who was in command was killed. Our loss is over four hundred. The notorious guerrilla Todd was killed. Price has a large force, Fagan, Shelby, Marmadaka, Clark, McRee, and several other brigadiers are with him. He has both Arkansas and Missouri troops mostly we terans.

We left Independence falling back to Big Blue, and held the line. Gen. Curtiss, Blunt and Dutcher are all on the ground Early this morning about 10 o'clock Jennison was attacked at Byrons Ford by a heavy column. He had the 15th Kans as and several guns, and about two p. m the enemy forced the ford and Jennison are in good spirits.

Col. Jennison, Moonlight and Hunt with Gen. Curtiss fought the enemy till some time after dark, driving him for a distance of four miles over an open space. The affair was very brilliant. We had captured up to that time 59 guns. He thinks the number of the enemy's wag ons will reach 300. Prisoners are constant y arriving from the front.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The World's acount of the snatching of victory from aparent defeat on Wednesday is as follows was dated on the night of the battle Sheridan having completed his prepara-

Roar of muskerry now had a gleeful, darling sound, and the guns fired shotted salutes of victory. Castar and Merritt charging in on the right and left, doubled up the flanks of the foe, taking prisoners, shashing, killing, driving as they went. The march of the infantry was more majestic and more terrible. The lines of the oe swayed and broke before it every where, Beyond Middletown, on the battle-field fought over in the morning, their columns were completely overthrown and disorganized. They fled along the pike and over the field like sheep. Custar took again in one of his charges, captured from us in the morning, the first gun we had captured during the day. Many more guns were to be ours before nightfall. It was dusk when the rebel army. forsaking every inch of ground they had won went across Cedar Run pell mell, and went in flying towards Strasburg. Two brig-ades of cavalry, Wett's and Lowell's pur-sued, charging them at every chance, and increasing the rout before them.

At nightfall our cavalry entered Strasourg while the enemy was still passing through the town and from that time until three o'clock, confined themselves with assistance of a division of infantry afterwards sent forward by Gen. Sheridau to picking up prisoners and mustering together, and sending to the rear the artillery, army wagons and ambulances which had been left by the foe in their headlong flight, 43 guns, including nearly all of those taken from us during the day have already been counted, and it is said that the number will reach fifty. "The medical supplies and wagons captured from the 19th corps were restored, also several of our ambulances and wagons, and a hundred or more belonging to the enemy. Prisoners taken will number 2,000. It has been impossible to provide guards for them as rapidly as they are captured. A large number sent to the rear will probably escape during the night but all are so completely tired out with the days fighting and marching that we shall pick up hundreds by the wayside when the morning dawns.

New York, October 24.—The Herald's burg during the past week, interrupted burg during the past week, interrupted only by occasional picket firing which was renewed Thursday night and kept up with will reach 5,000 in killed wounded and missing. We also lost early in the mornising. We also lost early in the mornising. ning 24 guns. We have captured, including the wounded in our hands, about 7,000 men and 50 guns. The total loss of the enemy cannot therefore be much short of 10,000 men. Gen. Custar alone has receipts for 43 guns and 5 battle-flags besides a large number of ambulances, horpieces of artilley that his division has capured during the last two weeks.

If any reliance is to be placed upon the statements of prisoners and intercepted letters it is now pretty certainly deter-mined that General Longstreet was not in he valley but that General Early had deermined to strike a desperate blow for the ecovery of this district and his lost repu tation in the absence, as he supposed of the commanding General and the 6th corps. In this effort he was seconded by Kershaw, whose infantry having been several times defeated by our cavalry, felt that his reputation needed some brighten-ing. Many of the other officers, however, high in command deemed the effort rash and hesitated not to express the epinion that should it fail it would end the rule of the confederacy in that section of Virginia. Kershaw executed the first portion of the programme well and the whole rebel army fought with greater obstinacy than ever before as their losses exhibits, but nothing. could withstand the persistency of our men. The Herald's correspondent has the following concerning our captures at Cedar Creek and the pursuit of the enemy. Dev-en with his little brigade, kept sweeping down upon their rear, gobbling up the officers and men by scores. He pressed them so hard it was impossible to get their artillery out of his way. The cannoniers dismounted and ran off into the woods on either side of the road, and the rear guard of the demoralized rebel army, if it had one, followed suit leaving the whole train in our hands: Limbers, caissons. wagons and ambulances were all huddled together in the greatest disorder.

The following is the principal of Gen. Deven's captures. Twenty two pieces of artillery, including a section of 32-pounders; 39 army wagons; 30 ambulances; 3 mules; 117 horses; 2 stands of colors; a guidon; 350 prisoners were captured and a large quantity of small arms. Abbott has been retained with Mr. R. tions, awakened his army and the enemy Laflamine for the accused, and we understand the retainer sent to Hon. J. H. Emerson as counsel. Mr. Develin is retained by the Federal authorities. We have just received a letter from Lt. Bennett Young, commanding the party of raiders on St. Albans, to the editor of the Evening Telegraph C. E. October 21. Through the columns of your journal I wish to make some statements to the people of. Canada regarding the recent operations in Vermont. I went there for the purpose of burning the town and surrounding villages as a retaliation of re-cent outrages in the Shenandoah Valley, and elsewhere in the Confederate, States. I am a commissioned officer of the provisional army of the Confederate States, and violating no laws of Canada, I do not wish my name coupled with epithets now applied without a knowledge on the part of the people as to who we were, and why our actions. I wish also to make a few statements as to how myself and party were taken. I was seized on Canadian soil by American citizens with arms in their hands, and violently searched; my pocketbook was taken and I was forcibly placed in a buggy between two men and started towards the United States. I reached out and caught the rein, when two pistols were leveled at my head with threats to "shoot the damned scoundrel dead if he moved." Some Canada citizens then spoke up and seeing the bailiff, they started with me towards him. Two of them holding me, with arms in their hands. These statements can be proven by Canadian citizens. They came into this place and even beyond it, brandishing their guns, and attempting to kill surgeon would respectfully amounce to the citizens some of us after we were in the hunds of English authorities. Surely the people of Vermont must have forgotten that you are not in the midst of wars and ruled by a not in the midst of war, and ruled by a man despotic in his action and supreme in his infamy. I am not afraid to go before the courts of Canada, and when the affair is investigated, I am satisfied the other party will be found the violaters of Canadian or English law. Some one, I hope, will be sent to investigate this breach of neutrality and award to those American citizens doing armed duty in Canada, the joint merit of their transgressions. Ho-ping you will give this a publication. I ping you wingire remain yours respectfully, BENNETT H. YOUNG, 1st Lieut., P. A., S. C.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

W. G. BORINTS.

The trial of one hundred and fifty persons recently arrested in Washington and Baltimore, on the charge of farnishing goods to the rebals, has commenced before a commission, of which Gen. Doubleday is President. The first case taken up was that of Johnson & Sutton, a business firm in Washington. The principal witness was Pardon Worsley, a resident of Massa. chusetts when the war broke out, who testisted that he was officially is employed to discover blockade-runners, and also to obtain information in the Valley from Moseby and other rebels: As a mount to this end, he peddled goods among them; some of which he purchased from the firm, who were informed of his contraband trading. but not the objects of it, nor that he was n detective.

Hoon's Political Failure.—It seems that the present, or rather the late offensive campaign of Hood was actually undertaken as a means of affording aid and comfort to the peace party of the North. Jeff, Davis, himself, confessed so in his speech delivered at Augusta on the 3d inst., just prior to Hood's, advance. He said : "We must heat Sherman ; we must march into Tennessee; there we will draw from 20,000 to 30,000 to our standard, and so strongthoned, we must push the enemy back to the Ohio, and thus give the peace parly of the North an accretion no puny editoral can give." The peace party must greatly grieve over the ill fortune which speaks at the Court Room this evening. has befallen the army of Ifood in its desperate effort to aid thein. Their newspapers and speakers give abundant evidence of their disappointment:

I wish also to make a few statements as to how myself and party were taken. I was soized on Canadian soil by American citizens with arms in their hands, and violently searched; my pockethook was taken and I was forcibly placed in a buggy between two men and started towards the United States. I eached out and caught the rein, when two piatols were leveled at my head with threats to "shoot the damned secundrel lead if he moved." Some Canada citizens then spoke up and seeing the bailiff, they started with me towards him. Two again in one of his charges, captured from of them holding me, with arms in their hands. These statements can be proven by Canadian citizens. They came into this place and even beyond it, brandish-

Surely the people of Vermont must have forgotten that you are not in the midst of war, and ruled by a man despotic in his action and supremoir his infamy. I am not afraid to go before the courts of Canada, and when the affair is investigated, I am satisfied the other party will be found the violaters of Canadian or English law. FROM GRANT'S ARMY

New York, Oct. 22,-Special to the Commercial from Washington 22d says tho boat from City Point reports all quiet yesterday, but the enemy were engaged in strengthening their fortifications on the north side of the James river. One hundred and sixty robel prisoners came up, many of whom took the oath of allegiance one rebel officer says that he gave himself un because the southerners have not men or money enough to hold out much longer. HEADQUARTERS ARMY POTOMAC, Oct. 21 -Quiet has prevailed in front of Petersburg during the past week, interrupted only by occasional picket firing which was renewed Thursday night and kept up with spirit until daylight. Along the center of the line heavy firing was also heard in the direction of the James river but the object of it was not known. A dispatch announcing another Union victory in the valley caused the most hearty rejoicing among our troops.

New York, Oot. 22.—A special correspondence from Grant's army states that the announcement of Sheridan's victory has caused great rejoicing, and shotted sulutes from all the batteries along the lines conveyed this intelligence to the robels in their works.

Gen. Butler has removed from labor in the Dutch Gap Canal the rebel prisoners whom he had placed there in retalintion for captured colored soldiers of our army being put to work on the rebel fortifications, Gen. Lee having agreed to release the latter from this occupation.

It is said that on the special recommendation of Gen. Grant, Gen. Hunter is to succeed the late Gen, Birney in command of the 18th corps.

New YORK, Oct. 24.—The Herald's Vashingtra special says the opinion is openly avowed by the highest military unhorities there that Gen. Grant can at any ime he pleases, with a few hours fighting, coupy the city of Richmond and force Lee either to enpitulate or hastily evacuate the rebel capital. The only reason assigned for the delay is the desire of the Lieut. General to attain the same result without the serious sacrifice of life that would attend the capture of this stronghold by direct assault at: this time.

For MeCiellan In a Horn.

There was a triangle of most enjoyable misery in one of the Washington hospitals, last week, formed by three of Seymour's Commissioners to rake up Democratic votes among the sick and wounded soldiers. The story, as circulated without the credit of its origin, is this:

When the visitors were seated and the agent mounting a box, and delivering him-self as follows: Well, boys, I suppose I may as well tell you what I came here for at first as at last. I came here to get Mc-Clellan and Seymour, votes. Now let all who want to vote these tickets come for-

I Would rather Fight for Jeff. Davis, than Abraham Lincoln. (For the Gazette.)

Such was the remark of an individual in this city a fow days since; the truth of which will by substantiated by affidavits, if questioned by the interested party. Itis scarcely necessary to say that this same person, was denouncing Abraham Lincoln for making arbitary arrests as the copperheadq aiyle it. He was also expounding the Coustitution of the United States which we guarantee he never read; and further, that he, in common with the thousand others of his class who have so much to say on the subject, has as little idea of what it is, as the Hottentot. The entire expounders of the Constitution just now? Those who can read, and those who cannot are as wise as owls upon the valuable instrument. A little learning has made some of them mad; no learning at all has made not a few traitors to the country that protects and feeds them.

This individual was also for McClellan

Business Men in Business Hours.

The social nature of the man of business may be said to be under a cloud during business hours. Under the pressure of numerous and varied responsibilities, his genial qualities, whatever they may be, are necessirily held in abeyance. Expect nothing of him when he is in harness, save the gait and style of action that belong to the business course. Hereis running against time, and has no leisure for curvetting and caracolling.

Your idler who drops in apon the business man during the burden and heat of the commercial day is apt to find him "grumpy.": Grumpy is an epither which the Do-nothings of the world are rather fond of applying to pre-occupied men whose working moments are too precious to be wasted in ceremony. Ask the un-timely counting house, visitor if he was treated with incivility, and he will probably answer—"why no, not exactly with incivility; but Mr. So-and-so was short and abrupt in his manner, and he did not oven invite me sit of down."

Most worshipful Trifler whose object is to Kill time, while that of the gentleman you were so uncivil as to annoy is to make the most of it, how do you suppose Mr. Soand so would get through his herculean daily labors if he were not short and ab-rupt in his questions and replies? Should he ask every bore who calls upon him to sit down, how many chairs do you think he would need in his office? Do you imagine he would like to transact his private business in the midst of a crowd, or that if he sought golden opinions from you, or such as you, by doing the agreeable when he might be doing the profitable, he would achieve fortune or the respect of the business world? Business men are the salt of the earth; and they cannot afford to waste their savon on the moribund loungers who go rouning, through the community in search of places to expend their vagallond ism in a search of places to expend their vagallond.

When the fulfillment came to the first part of the prediction, it of course strengthened her in the heliof of the rest; and even when in prison under sentence of death, and her bed was taken from her at night because, she was to die in the morn: ing, she bade her friends have courage that it would not be so, and that she would sit upon that throne then in ruins beneath the bloody feet of Robespierre; and when the jailors in derision; called upon her to name her maids of honor, that they might be ready when she was queen, she did so, and her nomination was finally fulfilled to

.There was but little lapse of time between her liberation from prison and her-marriage to Napoleon, and it was by the influence that she exerted that he was: appointed to the command of the army of Ituly, after which the path that led them: upward was clear and open, until the desa iny she had insisted upon was placed upon her head:

But there was one thing more that Jose phine had foretold for herself which was he utter loss of power and rank to which she had been so wonderfully elevated, and still while she brooded over this; Napoleon, who was her lord, gathering new power and yielding to new ambitions, she tried to crush it, and to point out what should be his true aims; but he was an Emperor, and desired to be the founder of a new compire.

How well her instincts told her that the time was rapidly approaching when that ambition would make him put her away! Then came the close of the campaign of 1800; and she sawathat the hour was approaching still nearer that was to seal both their fates. There was no longer the confidence of the past between them; no longer the seeking of sympathy and advice.

It was on the 20th of November, (1809) and the court was especially gay in honor of the visit of the King of Saxony. Jos ephine sat at the window of her boudoir, looking out supon other river, when, she heard a sten at the door, and rose to re ceive Napoleon, who caught her in his arms, with more of the olden time embrace than she had known for months She led him to the soft on which she had been sitting, and seated herself by his

and Mr. Douglas.

After leaving, and while on Jur way by both? You have now reached that homeward, I said to Mr. Douglas, "You point of ambition that should content you. Will you turn the unquiet God. from your hosom and our own happiness. "You misunderstood me, lady." he said, quickly rising from his seat and leaning against the window: "I'm seeking nothing for myself," but everything for France."

"It is for France, Napoleon," she said, drawing close to his side and taking his hand in hers, "that you would put away from you, not only a true wife but a true friend! Think not that I have been blind sire, to this. My alarmed heart has told me all, and believe me that I am offering no protest to your will, but oh, sire! examine well your heart before you act."

He stood silent while she was speaking and then, with face turned full upon the streaming moonlight he drew away his hands. She went on:

handa. She went on:
And, Oh Sire! believe me, that though I mit to leave your throne and your side, I shall never cease to love you too deeply for my feace. Therefore II is that I plead that you will look well into your heart befare you yield your future to bad coursels, He drew quickly from the window and walked forward to the center of the room You cannot sympathize with me madnt, Fact only with reason. The good of the individual must yield to the good of France. Farewell? "Stop?" she said, and Josephine stepsed quickly across the room and caught his arm, drawing him as she did so again to the window, "Do you see that star?" and she pointed at one that shone with marked brightness." That is my destiny. By it you have risen. To it was promised a through me you have accomplished it; part from me and you fall. Yes, full to die in surrow, neglect and

We can conscientiously recommend to those suffering from a distressing cough, Dr. Strickland's Melliflyous Cough Balsam. It gives roller almost tastanta-neous, and is withal not disagreeable to the tasts. There is no doubt-but the Mellifluous-Cough Balsam is one of the best preparations now in use, and is all that its proprietor claims for it. We have tried it during the past week, and found relief from a most dis tressing cough. It is prepared by Dr. I Strickland, No. East Fourth street, Cincinnati, O., and for sale by Druggiate at 65 conts per bottle.

After having played on the Fishe of Messiv. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not, to bear testimony, to their qualities, which have acquired for them the emission reputation which they enjoy. The Planes of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The hass is powerful without hardness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country, by the most celebrated makers.

Gentleman: Harling stated it reinfully to you, I have no hesitation in writing the fact, that I experienced marked benefit from your Houland's German Bitters. Burings along and tedious sension of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have usuated. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular relief I so much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be.

Truly your friend; THOMAS E. PLORENCE.

For John B. Withersham, Esq., Jrm Foin John E. Withersham, Esq. 3rm of Withersham and Hutchmson, the celebrated mainfacturers of Bancy Iron Works, 259 Canal street:

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest haver that can be conferred upon man, viz. that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most anneying and debilitating complaints that he, shapen Jamily, can be afficied with, Chronic Bierrines.

During the long time I was suffering from this chapeas, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remode and the chapeas of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely endicated.
